Challenges in Australian Education - Federalism; Fanfare; Fads...and Funding

8 April. 5.30pm

Concord Golf Club – (The Teachers' Guild of New South Wales)

There are many challenges facing the future of education in Australia. Some of these relate to the governance arrangements and the distribution of responsibilities; others relate to electoral cycles and the central place education/schools take in these; still others concern the tendency for binaries to dominate debate about teaching and learning; and finally, there's the old nutshell – funding debates. Dr Lambert will outline the challenges in progressing quality education in Australia using Federalism, Fanfare, Fads and Funding as themes to frame the presentation. He will also give insight into why these challenges are particularly relevant to Australia, drawing on his extensive experience and current work at state, national and international levels. For further details regarding registration, please refer to the following link below or Dr Frederick Osman on fosman@bu.edu
